PAYING FOR COLLEGE

There are several options for paying for college. To name a few, there are Personal Funds, Private Scholarships, Federal Grants & Loans, and Private Loans. Please visit our website antiochcollegeag.edu for information about paying for your college education. Applicants for these additional resources can take several weeks to process so use of these additional financial resources need to be started at least twelve (12) weeks before the semester begins. In fact, many private scholarships and grants have their own specific deadlines for application submission. It is imperative that students initiate financial applications along with their academic applications in order to assure financial resources are available prior to the beginning of the semester.

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID

- Must complete FAFSA Application (www.fafsa.ed.gov) and meet eligibility requirements.
School code: 041538

VETERAN'S BENEFITS—must meet eligibility requirements
